X-Ray Shoe, Latest of Fashion's Fads

Leaders of extreme feminine fashions in New York are placing orders for the newest fad in footwear—the X-ray shoe. The X-ray shoes have uppers of Irish crochet lace so that glimpses of the foot may be obtained. For evening, the uppers are entirely of lace, while for street wear the shoes will be fitted with shallow galoshes of suede kid surmounted with the finest sort of lace.

Dances

Capt. and Mrs. John H. Lewis gave a delightful "one-step" party recently at their camp at Anapra, N. M., in honor of Mrs. Edward P. Rockhill, wife of Maj. Rockhill, retired, who are making their home in Central, N. M. There were six couples present.

STAY ON YOUR FEET AND LIVEN UP YOUR LIVER

Taking Calomel Often Means Staying Home for the Day—Take Dodson's Liver Tonic and Save a Day's Work.
If an attack of constipation or biliousness hits you, there's no need to take a dose of calomel and spend at least a day getting over the effects of it. Almost every druggist in town sells the liver tonic, Dodson's Liver Tonic and guarantees it to take the place of calomel and to start a laxative without any bad after-effects. Dodson's Liver Tonic does all the good that calomel ever did, yet it is absolutely harmless to young people and old. It is a pleasant tasting vegetable liquid that will relieve constipation or sour stomach or other troubles that go along with a laxative, without restriction of habit or diet. You don't leave off any of the things you regularly do when you take Dodson's Liver Tonic.
Your druggist sells Dodson's Liver Tonic and gives it his strong personal guarantee. A large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic sells for 50 cents, and the druggist who makes the sale will hand any person back his fifty cents if he tries a bottle and doesn't say that it does all that calomel ever does and does it pleasantly. Get the genuine Dodson's Liver Tonic and if you are not pleased with it you get your money back from your druggist—Advertisement.

MINARET IS LATEST GOWN FROM PARIS

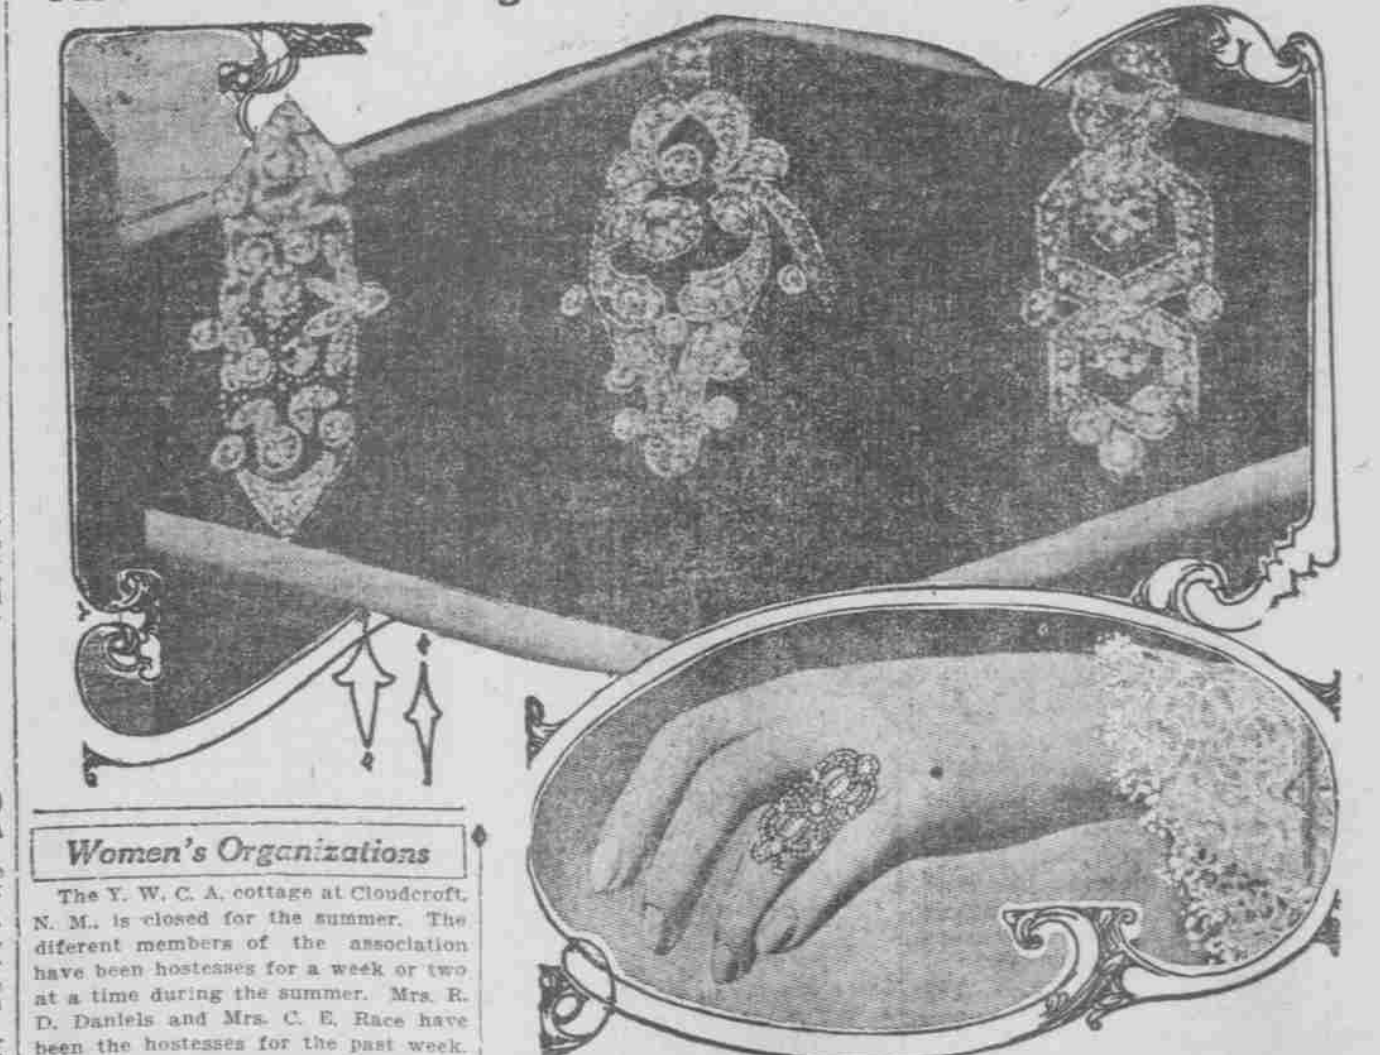

Exit the slit skirt and the X-ray gown! The minaret gown is to take first place in the shops of modistes who cater to really fashionable folk. Invented by Paul Poiret, of Paris, it is here shown by Mlle. Margol, perhaps the most famous fashion model in the world. Mlle. Margol introduced the gown at Deauville. The fashionable French watering place, and the creation met with instantaneous success. No frilling lingerie is worn with it and it is very tight at the bottom. The latest thing in millinery is also worn by Mlle. Margol in the photograph. It is simply a band of ornamental velvet. The wearer's ciffure takes the place of a crown.

Mlle. Margol wearing the minaret gown and the ciffure crown.

"After-Dinner" Ring Now Graces Finger of Milady

Society women have taken up the fad of wearing after-dinner rings with such a rush that it promises to be one of the most successful fads of the coming winter season. The ring is made in curious designs, costs anywhere from $500 up, and is set with diamonds in platinum, some preferring a ruby or a pearl to the large center diamond. The setting in some instances is one and a half inches long, so that when worn it keeps the finger joint perfectly still.

Women's Organizations

The Y. W. C. A. cottage at Cloudcroft, N. M., is closed for the summer. The different members of the association have been hostesses for a week or two at a time during the summer. Mrs. R. D. Daniels and Mrs. C. E. Race have been the hostesses for the past week. Miss Lucille Daniels went up to Cloudcroft and spent a few days, returning with her mother.

Tonight at the central rooms of the Y. W. C. A. there will be an "Ester Park" party, all the members of the association who attended the convention taking part. Refreshments will be served.

Parties

A surprise party was given in honor of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Birkmann, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fahrerkamp, 1239 San Antonio street. Those present, many of whom were accompanied by their families, were: Mr. and Mrs. Kretschman, Mr. and Mrs. Potahl, Mr. and Mrs. Wesenewski, Mr. and Mrs. Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Ahrens, Mr. and Mrs. F. Fahr, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fahr, from Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Fahrerkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Narsinski, Mr. and Mrs. Voelkel, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Birkmann; Misses Kluender, Gertrude Fahr, Sophie Kiefer, Gusta Fahrerkamp, Helen Fahrerkamp; Messrs. O. H. Gebler, Otto Hintze, Anton Krahmer.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homan Schneider on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, at 2300 Myrtle avenue, in honor of Tom Schneider. The house was decorated in ivy and pink and white carnations. Japanese lanterns were hung on the porch. Nineteen pink and white candles burned on the large birthday cake. As each guest blew a candle, a wish was made for the guest of honor. In cutting the cake, Miss Ruth Morris received the ring; Miss Gladys Sincelm, the thimble; Henry Taylor, the dime; Milton Brown, the button. New and interesting games were played and many gifts received by the honored guest. Those present were: Misses Edith Taylor, Hettie Boone, May Harris, Ruth Morris, Reba and Linda Moore, Cordia Walk, Ada Ramsey, Gladys Sincelm; Messrs. Tom Schneider, Milton Brown, Harry Daugherty, Roscoe Clendenen, Henry Gilbert, Mrs. H. D. Schneider and Mrs. J. Gutting assisted in entertaining and serving.

Mrs. James Mortenson, of Government Hill, entertained yesterday with a coffee klatch, at her home, Mrs. E. W. Bryan, Mrs. Frederickson, Mrs. A. Schmid, Little Miss Fontella Mortenson and Albert Junior Schmid.

Thursday afternoon, at the home of her parents in Palm Court, Cecile Chester entertained a host of her little friends in celebration of her eighth birthday anniversary. Numerous games were enjoyed, after which the children engaged in a cotest each trying, while blindfolded, to pin a bottle closest to a paper baby's mouth; in this Myrtle Thiesen and Dorothy Ritter were the prize winners. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served in the dining room, which was prettily decorated in pink and green. As the children left the dining room, they were showered with good wishes and all kinds from a hanging surprise basket in the archway. Those who enjoyed little Miss Chester's hospitality were: Irene Burston, Ruth McDowell, Virginia Spallins, Myrtle Thiesen, Jane Demmitt, Lorraine Hall, Emily Brown, Marion Jackson, Dorothy Ritter, Hart Funder, Burson, Ewing Waterhouse, Dan Ponder, Edwin Rice, Burton Rawlings. Mrs. Chester was assisted in entertaining the little folk by Misses Fay Peck and Hazel Smith.
